

Allgemeiner Sozialer Dienst (ASD)

Youth Welfare and Social Affairs.

English

We advise and support parents

- in education issues,
- in difficult family situations,
- in case of separation and divorce,
- in resolving access and custody rights issues,
- by offering specific educational measures such as socioeducational family help, day care groups, foster families, assisted living for young people, care and education in an institution,
- and help them obtain other assistance.

We offer the following services to children and young people

- Advice and support in the following fields:
 - school and training
 - family and friends
 - leisure time
 - steps to independence
- Protection in emergencies

Citizens can contact us in case of

- need of advice regarding domestic violence,
- financial problems,
- issues concerning the entitlement to social assistance and contact with other services or institutions,
- need of care,
- rent arrears and actions for possession,
- personal problems.

Services offered in the communities

- Cooperation with institutions such as schools and day care centres.
- Cooperation with community associations, self-help groups, churches and other organisations.
- Networking with other authorities and institutions.
- Commitment for the development of a Social City.

Our work is

- individual
- confidential
- cooperative
- free of charge
- and we do home visits
- we work in locally based teams.

According to your current life situation.

Other fields of activity

- Support to unaccompanied minor refugees staying at the „State of Baden-Württemberg’s Reception Centre for Asylum Seekers and Refugees in Karlsruhe“ (Landesaufnahmestelle für Asylsuchende und Flüchtlinge Karlsruhe)
- Socio-educational contact point for the city’s trailer park
- After school centre for therapeutic education

Duty to protect children whose well-being is at risk

If there is a suspicion that a child’s well-being is at risk we assess the risk and initiate the necessary steps for the child’s protection. You will find more information regarding our professional standards on the following website: karlsruhe.de/kinderschutz

Such risks might include

- neglect
- maltreatment
- sexual abuse
- domestic violence

If you notice that children or young people aren’t treated well or are in distress (if their well-being is at risk) please turn to one of the following services:
