What do the different educational qualifications mean?

German schools offer a range of academic qualifications. The higher the school leaving certificate, the more opportunities you have when choosing a career. But you also have to go to school for longer.

With a Hauptschulabschluss (after the 9th grade) or a Mittlerer Bildungsabschluss (after the 10th grade), you can enter vocational training or start an apprenticeship.

With an Abitur or Hochschulreife (after the 12th or 13th grade) is required to enter higher education, e.g. university.

After completing each qualification, you can continue your education in order to gain a higher certificate.

Even if you have dropped out of school, you can study for qualifications later, e.g. at a vocational school.

Bildungsnavi Baden Württemberg shows you the options and explains the different types of schools.

What is a vocational school?

You can attend a vocational school after completing secondary school. Vocational schools offer a range of possibilities. You can prepare for a trade, study for a higher school qualification or learn a profession.

There are a variety of vocational schools specialising in different areas:

- Gewerbliche Schulen (vocational school – trade) – Here you can study a trade or technical profession.
- Kaufmännische Schule (vocational school – commercial) – Here you can study for a career in business and commerce.
- Hauswirtschaftliche Schule (vocational school – home economics) – Here you can study for careers in housekeeping, health and social services.

What are the differences between the types of secondary schools?

Secondary school education starts in the 5th grade and continues for between 5 and 9 years. The different types of schools have different focuses and prepare children for different school leaving qualifications.

Werkrealschule:
- "Hauptschulabschluss" (secondary school leaving certificate) after 9th grade; or
- "Mittlerer Bildungsabschluss" (intermediate school leaving certificate) after 10th grade

Realschule:
- "Hauptschulabschluss" (secondary school leaving certificate) after 9th grade; or
- "Mittlerer Bildungsabschluss" (intermediate school leaving certificate) after 10th grade

Gymnasium:
- "Abitur" (the highest school leaving certificate) after the 12th or 13th grade

Gemeinschaftsschule:
- All qualifications possible

How to enrol your child at a school

6 to 10 years: Registration at a primary school (VKL)
Your child will attend the local primary school for the area where you live. Use the primary school search (Grundschulsuche) to find the school for any address. If you have just moved to Karlsruhe, you can also find the name of your local primary school when you register at the residents’ registration office (Einwohnermeldeamt).
You must enrol your child directly at the school. If there is no preparatory class there, the school will help you.
Please make an appointment at the school secretary’s office. To complete the enrolment, you will need to go to the school in person and take your child with you.
Please bring:
- The child’s birth certificate
- The child’s passport
- Your own passport

11 to 15 years: Enrolment at a secondary school (VKL)
If you would like to enrol your child for a preparatory class at a secondary school, please contact the Gutenbergschule or the Pestalozzischule to make an appointment. The head teacher will then talk with you and your child and find a suitable school.
Please bring:
- The child’s birth certificate
- The child’s passport
- Your own passport
- School reports, if available.

16 to 18 years: Enrolment at a vocational school (VABO)
If your child is 16 years or older, he or she will join a preparatory class at a vocational school. These classes are known as VABO. VABO concludes with an examination in German at the level A2 or B1.
You can enrol online.

What happens after VABO?
VABO is followed by preparation for a German school leaving qualification. All school-leaving qualifications – from "Hauptschulabschluss" (for entering an apprenticeship) to "Hochschulreife" (for entering higher education) – can be obtained at vocational schools. It is also possible to change to another type of school. The VABO teacher can advise you on this.
